

Ray Zamora
2019 Chair-elect
Associated Builders and Contractors

Ray Zamora, president of AnchorBuilt Inc., Albuquerque, New Mexico, is the 2019 chair-elect of Associated Builders and Contractors. Zamora previous served as the Mountain West region vice chair from 2014-2018.

As a member of the ABC Executive Committee, Zamora helps oversee the activities of the national association, sets policy and assists the national chair in carrying out the mandates of the ABC Board of Directors.

Zamora also served two consecutive terms as chair of the board for the ABC New Mexico Chapter. During his tenure, Zamora was active in defeating a potential project labor agreement in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and expanding apprenticeship programs into the southern region of New Mexico.

He has been a member of ABC since 2005, previously serving on the Plumbing Apprentice Committee, the Carpentry Committee and board member. Zamora started AnchorBuilt in 1996 after he developed a passion in construction while working with his grandfather, a stone mason. A carpenter and plumber, Zamora now runs the company he started with his wife, which employs more than 50 people.

Zamora is also a member of the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties, U.S. Green Building Council and American Institute of Architects. He is also president of Humble Fish, a nonprofit organization Zamora started with his family to assist families with food during the holiday season. Since 2009, Humble Fish has provided thousands of food baskets to families in Albuquerque and the surrounding areas.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors is a national construction industry trade association established in 1950 that represents more than 21,000 members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 69 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically and profitably for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work. Visit us at abc.org.