

Ray Zamora
2015 Mountain West Region Vice Chairman
Associated Builders and Contractors

Ray Zamora, President of AnchorBuilt Inc. Albuquerque, NM began his term as Mountain West Region Vice Chairman of Associated Builders and Contractors since May 2014. The Mountain West Region includes members and chapters in New Mexico, Colorado, Utah, Nevada and Arizona.

Zamora is also past chairman of the ABC New Mexico Chapter where he served two consecutive terms as chairman of the Board. During his tenure, Zamora was active in defeating a potential project labor agreement (PLA) in Santa Fe, New Mexico. He also worked to expand the apprenticeship program into the southern region of New Mexico.

Zamora has been an active member of ABC since 2005 where he previously served on the Plumbing Apprentice Committee, the Carpentry Committee and as an active Board member.

Zamora started AnchorBuilt in 1996 where he developed a passion in construction after working with his grandfather, a stone mason. Zamora worked as a carpenter and plumber and now runs the company he started with his wife that employs more than 50 people.

Zamora is also president of Humble Fish, a non-profit organization started by him and his family to assist families with food during the holiday season. Since 2009, Humble Fish has provided thousands of food baskets to families in the Albuquerque and surrounding areas. In 2014, the organization distributed 600 food baskets to families and is expected to increase to 700 in 2015.

Zamora is also a member of the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP), U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC), and American Institute of Architects (AIA).
