

Tim Keating
2016 Southeast Region Vice Chair
Associated Builders & Contractors

Tim Keating, owner and president of R. C. Stevens Construction Company, Winter Garden, Fla., began his service as the Southeast Region vice chair of Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) in March, 2016. The Southeast Region includes approximately 6,500 member companies in 13 chapters in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

As a member of the ABC Executive Committee, Keating helps oversee the activities of the national association, sets policy and assists the national chairs in carrying out the mandates of the ABC Board of Directors. He also serves on the ABC National Budget & Finance and Chapter Development committees. At the local level, Keating has been president of the ABC Central Florida Chapter and ABC of Florida.

Keating joined R. C. Stevens Construction Company in 1984, shortly after graduating from the University of Florida with a Bachelor of Science degree in building construction. He went on to earn his MBA from the University of Central Florida, and in 2007 he was appointed as R. C. Stevens' third-generation owner and president.

Keating has been active in the West Orange County community for more than 30 years through organizations such as the One Hundred and One Committee, Boy Scouts of America and Camp La-No-Che. The governor appointed Keating chairman of the West Orange Healthcare District Board of Trustees; he also serves on the Florida Housing Development Corporation Board of Directors and City of Winter Garden Community Redevelopment Advisory Board.

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national construction industry trade association representing nearly 21,000 chapter members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 70 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically, profitably and for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work.
