

Ray Zamora
2016 Mountain West Region Vice Chair
Associated Builders and Contractors

Ray Zamora, President of AnchorBuilt Inc. Albuquerque, N.M., has served as Mountain West region vice chair of Associated Builders and Contractors since May 2014. The Mountain West region includes members and chapters in Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, New Mexico, Nevada and Utah.

Zamora also served two consecutive terms as chair of the board for the ABC New Mexico Chapter. During his tenure, Zamora was active in defeating a potential project labor agreement in Santa Fe, N.M. He also worked to expand the apprenticeship program into the southern region of New Mexico.

Zamora has been an active member of ABC since 2005 where he previously served on the Plumbing Apprentice Committee, the Carpentry Committee and as an active board member.

Zamora started AnchorBuilt in 1996 after he developed a passion in construction while working with his grandfather, a stone mason. Zamora worked as a carpenter and plumber and now runs the company he started with his wife that employs more than 50 people.

Zamora is also president of Humble Fish, a non-profit organization started by him and his family to assist families with food during the holiday season. Since 2009, Humble Fish has provided thousands of food baskets to families in the Albuquerque and surrounding areas.

Zamora is also a member of the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties, U.S. Green Building Council, and American Institute of Architects.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national construction industry trade association representing nearly 21,000 chapter members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 70 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically, profitably and for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work. Visit us at <http://www.abc.org/>