

George R. Nash Jr.
2019 Immediate Past Chair
Associated Builders and Contractors

George R. Nash Jr., business unit leader – Herndon for Branch Builds, Herndon, Virginia, is the 2019 immediate past chair of Associated Builders and Contractors. Nash served as chair in 2018, chair-elect in 2017 and as the Mid-Atlantic region vice chair 2015-2016, which includes members and chapters in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. He was the 2014 chair of the ABC National Political Action Committee and chair of the ABC Metro Washington Chapter in 2010.

Nash has more than 35 years of experience in the construction industry and has worked in every facet of commercial construction, including estimating, procurement, operations, preconstruction and business development. He has managed a multitude of projects ranging from small and large commercial buildings to public stadiums.

Nash has held prior positions in a variety of construction and community groups, including being a member of the Town of La Plata Green Building Committee, a mentor and advisor for the ABC Metro Washington Leadership Development Program, a member of the Charles County Chamber of Commerce Legislative Committee and a board member of the Northern Virginia Transportation Alliance.

Nash earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Towson University.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors is a national construction industry trade association established in 1950 that represents more than 21,000 members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 69 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically and profitably for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work. Visit us at abc.org.