

Brendan McAndrews
2019 Mid-America Region Vice Chair
Associated Builders and Contractors

Brendan McAndrews, chief operations officer and co-owner of Rivercity Glass, dba McAndrews Glass, Cincinnati, was appointed as the Mid-America Regional Vice Chair of Associated Builders and Contractors in 2019, which includes members and chapters in Michigan, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio.

McAndrews currently serves on the ABC Bylaws & Policy and Diversity committees and is a past national Membership Committee chair and Ohio Valley Chapter chair, among other leadership positions. At the local level, he serves as treasurer of the Lower Price Hill Business Alliance.

McAndrews is a second-generation business owner since the acquisition of the company from his father in the early 2000's with his brother Troy McAndrews. Since then, the firm has been named one of the 30 fastest growing companies in Northern Kentucky by the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce (2015) and 55 fastest growing companies in the Cincinnati area by the Cincinnati Business Courier (2016). The firm was also listed among business owners to watch in 2018 and 2019 and covered in several Cincinnati Business Courier articles.

McAndrews attend Southlake Carrol High School in the suburbs of Fort Worth, Texas, followed by college at the University of Northern Colorado Monfort College of Business, where he earned his Bachelor of Science in business administration management. He was the founding president of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity chapter and president pro temp of the student body.

In addition to being active in his church, community and other small businesses, McAndrews and his wife enjoy travel and family time.