

Steve Klessig
2017 Midwest Region Vice Chair
Associated Builders and Contractors

Steve Klessig, vice president of architecture and engineering for Keller Inc., Kaukauna, Wis., began his term as Midwest region vice chair of Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) Jan. 1, 2015. The Midwest region includes members and chapters in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

As a member of the ABC Executive Committee, Klessig helps oversee the activities of the national association, sets policy and assists the national chairman in carrying out the mandates of the ABC Board of Directors.

In addition to his role with ABC, Klessig has served on the board of directors for the Wisconsin Association of School Boards for the past 10 years and has been on the Brillion Public School Board for 28 years. Klessig also serves on the Brillion Junior Achievement Board. Klessig is a member of the American Institute of Architects and the Wisconsin Society of Architects. He also sits on the board of directors for the Brillion Community Foundation and the Endries Foundation and is an active member and trustee chair of Zion United Methodist Church.

Klessig graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and has been practicing architecture since his graduation in 1984. He lives in Northeast Wisconsin with his wife, Faye, and their four children, where both he and his wife are 4-H leaders.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national construction industry trade association established in 1950 that represents more than 21,000 members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 70 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically and profitably for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work. Visit us at abc.org.