

Doug Carlson
2018 Chapter Presidents' Liaison
Associated Builders and Contractors

Doug Carlson, president and CEO of Associated Builders and Contractors' (ABC) Rocky Mountain Chapter, began his term as the Chapter Presidents Council's liaison to the Executive Committee in 2018. In this role, Carlson serves as chair of the council's Executive Committee and is responsible for the coordination of communications between ABC's 70 chapters and the national organization. He also promotes professional development for the chapter presidents while communicating their concerns, ideas and opinions to the ABC Executive Committee.

Carlson's entire career has been spent in service to the construction industry, starting with his first job out of college working for an insurance agency representing the ABC Insurance Trust in Indiana. During his 19 years at ABC, Carlson has served as president and CEO of the Greater Michigan Chapter, the Carolinas Chapter and now the Rocky Mountain Chapter. Carlson has served on many community boards and state organizations in Indiana, Michigan and the Carolinas and recently served on the Association Executives of North Carolina (AENC) Board of Directors. Carlson earned a bachelor's degree from Indiana University-Bloomington and is married with three boys.
