

Chuck Goodrich
2018 Immediate Past Chair
Associated Builders and Contractors

Chuck Goodrich is the 2018 immediate past chair of Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC). Goodrich served as ABC chair in 2017, chair-elect in 2016, secretary in 2015 and as the Mid-America region vice chair in 2015 and 2014. The Mid-America region includes members and chapters in Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Ohio. He previously served as Central Council Chair for the Indiana region of ABC and on ABC's National Free Enterprise Alliance as well as the Legislative Committee.

As a member of the ABC Executive Committee, Goodrich helps oversee the activities of the national association, sets policy and assists the national chairs in carrying out the mandates of the ABC Board of Directors.

Goodrich is the president of Gaylor Electric, Inc., one of the largest merit electrical companies in the Midwest. Gaylor is an award-winning electrical design-build contractor, which operates 12 offices in six states across the U.S.

Goodrich began his career with Gaylor in 1991 as an intern and moved up the ranks to a variety of key leadership positions within the company, including being named executive vice president in 2014. He is a proven leader and inspires his staff with his high-energy and high-performance business style.

As a leader in the business community, Goodrich is a professional member of the National Honor Society for Construction, and he is a board member of NCCER, Coalition for Construction Safety, Design-Build Institute of America and the Purdue Alumni Association. He has also served as chair of the Riverview Health Foundation and Purdue Construction Advisory Board for Building Construction Management.

Goodrich has been recognized for his professional leadership and philanthropic passion by winning the James J. Leonard Memorial Award; Business Person of the Year, City of Noblesville; the ABC Outstanding Chapter Support Award; and the Gaylor Optimist Award. Goodrich is a graduate of Purdue University, B.S. in building construction/contracting, and Clemson University: Project Management Academy and he received an A.S. architectural drafting degree from Vincennes University.

Goodrich lives in Noblesville, Ind., with his wife, Tricia, and their four children. The family is very active in the community and members of the White River Christian Church in Noblesville. Goodrich participates in the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce and Noblesville Youth Assistance Program. His favorite things to do during his free time are spending quality time with his wife and children, playing golf and rooting for the Indianapolis Colts and Purdue Boilermakers.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national construction industry trade association established in 1950 that represents more than 21,000 members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 70 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically and profitably for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work. Visit us at abc.org.