

Milton Graugnard
2018 South Central Region Vice Chair
Associated Builders and Contractors

Milton Graugnard, executive vice president of Cajun Industries, Baton Rouge, La., began his tenure on the Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) Executive Committee in 2018 as South Central region vice chair. The South Central region includes members and chapters in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas.

As a member of the ABC Executive Committee, Graugnard helps oversee the activities of the national association, sets policy and assists the national chairs in carrying out the mandates of the ABC Board of Directors.

Graugnard has also been on ABC's National Governmental Relations Committee and held multiple leadership positions at ABC's Pelican Chapter. His other professional affiliations include board member and past chairman of the Industrial Contractors Council, board member and founding member of the Greater Baton Rouge Industry Alliance and the Louisiana Construction Education Foundation, chairman of a political action committee for the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry and a founding member and past president of the South Central Louisiana Chapter of the Construction Financial Managers Association.

After earning a bachelor's degree from Louisiana State University, Graugnard became an auditing manager at accounting firm Hannis T. Bourgeois. He moved on to Cajun Industries as the chief financial officer and secretary/treasurer. In 1997, he was promoted to his current role.
