

Chris Garvey
2019 Chapter Presidents' Liaison
Associated Builders and Contractors

Chris Garvey, president and CEO of Chesapeake Shores Chapter of Associated Builders and Contractors, began his term as the Chapter Presidents Council's liaison to ABC's Executive Committee in 2019. In this role, Garvey also serves as chair of the Chapter Presidents Council and is responsible for the coordination of communications between ABC's 69 chapters and the national organization. He actively promotes chapter development for the association while relaying the concerns, ideas and opinions of all chapter presidents to the ABC Executive Committee.

Garvey's storied career includes more than a decade in the construction industry, first starting at a specialty contracting firm founded by his parents in 1976. During his seven years at ABC Chesapeake Shores, Garvey has proudly served the membership within the Chesapeake Bay region, which he calls home. Garvey is currently a governor-appointed trustee at Chesapeake College in Wye Mills, Maryland, where he is an ardent promoter of skilled trades education. Garvey has also served on many boards and councils, and currently treasurer of the ACE Mentoring Program of Annapolis. He earned a bachelor's degree from University of Maryland Baltimore County and is married with three grown children.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors is a national construction industry trade association established in 1950 that represents more than 21,000 members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 69 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically and profitably for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work. Visit us at abc.org